Quality portable stereo earphones deliver exceptional audio reproduction for personal listening with fewer distractions

MANHATTAN® Stereo Earphones deliver full-range sound from an in-the-ear design that helps to seal in the sound from favorite music, games or movies while offering a snug but comfortable fit to help isolate unpleasant noise. An inline microphone, volume control and mute button add convenience to online chat.

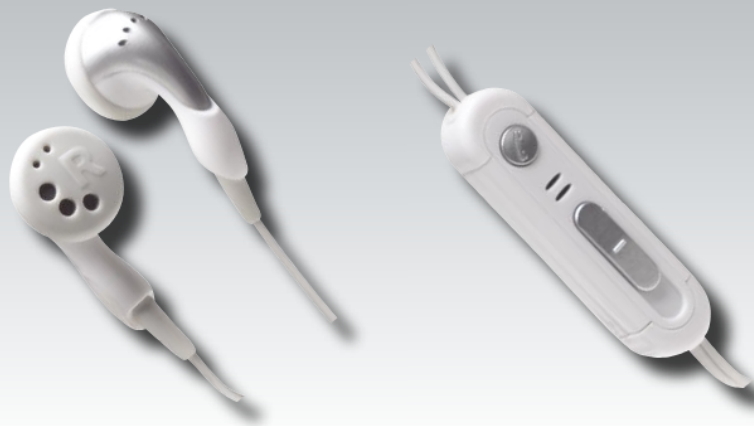

Designed to Complement Portable Media Players

Their compact size travels almost anywhere in a briefcase, backpack or pocket. A durable Y-cable features a 3.5 mm plug for improved connectivity and reliable use with notebook computers, portable digital music players and other media devices. MANHATTAN Stereo Earphones make an ideal replacement or upgrade from OEM earphones for better sound reception.

Lifetime Warranty

Strict manufacturing standards ensure the highest quality in all MANHATTAN products. All items carry a full Lifetime Warranty — the strongest quality commitment anyone can make.
